

2015 Hall of Honor Inductee

Andrew Blanks

Coach Blanks better known as Coach “B” has been a track & field coach for more than 40 years. He has worked at Texas Southern University as an Assistant Coach, at Johnston Middle School and Westbury High School as Head Track & Field and Cross Country Coach. To his credit he has been Teacher of the Year, Man of the Year, Coach of the Year, Cross Country Coach of the Year, Outstanding Young Educator, Golden Apple Award Winner, NAEBEC Secondary Teacher of the Year, Voted Johnston Middle Schools Teacher of the Year- twice, Dave Bethany Award Winner, Stan V. Wright Award Winner, and inducted into Houston Coaches Association Hall of Honor. He feels his most outstanding accomplishment is being the only coach to have two former athletes who were on the same high school team, who participated in the same events and to make the finals of the 400 meter hurdles in the Olympics in Athens, Greece. No other high school or coach has ever had this to happen.
